CORONATION WOODLAND GARDEN

Helen Wallbank has asked if there are any photographs of the Kings visit, so far none are available.

Official photographs are to come from the Duchy but these are not to go on social media.

Cllr Alpe to contact RVBC to get a list of properties so that a flyer can be sent out to promote the garden and get numbers for a safari supper.

It has been suggested that the garden should have a bench, and also a handrail for the steps.

Councillors give a copy of email received from Teresa Potter with pointers towards the upkeep of the garden going forward. She is concerned that things do not go backwards after such a positive start.

Cllr Alpe has so far paid all invoices for the works on the garden
